Subject

Progress

This is the teacher's judgement on whether this child will achieve their GCSE target grade – see descriptions on the right.

Subject Target

Based on this child's ability in this subject, this is the GCSE grade we expect him/her to achieve at the end of Year 11

Effort and Concerns

Regardless of progress, here you can see how well this particular pupil has been applying him/herself plus any concerns the teacher may have (none in this instance).

Progress Explained

Above

- if your son/daughter continues with their current level of progress they can be reasonably expected to achieve a GCSE grade higher than their target.

On

- if your son/daughter continues with their current level of progress they can be reasonably expected to achieve their GCSE target grade.

Border(line)

- if your son/daughter continues with their current level of progress they may achieve their GCSE target grade, but they may fall below this target.

Below

- if your son/daughter continues with their current level of progress they can be reasonably expected to achieve a GCSE grade below their target.
