

Key Words - General

| | |
|--------------------|---|
| Anglican | any church or church member which is part of the Church of England |
| Bible | the holy book for Christians |
| church | also chapel, cathedral, meeting house - different names for the Christian place of worship |
| Church | a community of Christians |
| congregation | the group of people who attend a place of worship |
| denomination | the different groups within a religion, especially Christianity |
| ecumenical | 'whole inhabited world'; now refers to a movement within Christianity to bring unity and improve relationships and understanding between Christian groups |
| liturgical worship | worship which follows a set format; in the Anglican Church, comes from the Book of Common Prayer (it is called 'Common Worship') |
| Pope | the Bishop of Rome and head of the Roman Catholic Church |
| Protestant | a denomination of Christianity, they were called by that name as they protested against some of the practices of the Catholic Church |
| Quaker | a denomination of Christianity, also known as the 'Society of Friends' |
| Roman Catholic | a denomination of Christianity, led by the Pope |
| Sacrament | an outward sign through which God's grace is given to a person |

Key Words - Baptism

| | |
|---------------------|---|
| adult baptism | baptism of an adult that includes the use of water and the person's own statement of faith |
| anoint | make somebody holy in a ceremony, usually putting oil onto them |
| believer's baptism | baptism of a person old enough to understand the meaning of the ceremony, often including full immersion in water |
| blessing | a form of words and action giving holiness or a gift from God to a person |
| confession of faith | a statement of religious teachings |
| godparents | a person who sponsors someone at a baptism |
| immersion | being covered in a liquid, such as water in believer's baptism |
| infant baptism | ceremony to welcome a child into the Christian religion |
| Trinitarian formula | "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit" used in Baptism |

Key Words - Eucharist

| | |
|--------------------|--|
| consubstantiation | the bread and the wine are symbols of the body and blood of Jesus Christ |
| Eucharist | also called Mass, Holy Communion, Divine Liturgy or Lord's Supper - the sacrament which re-enacts Jesus' Last Supper where he shared bread and wine with his disciples |
| Holy Communion | ritual which re-enacts the Last Supper of Jesus and his disciples |
| transubstantiation | the change in the bread and the wine to become the actual body and blood of Christ |

A diagram showing the different denominations of Christianity

▲ Believers' baptism involves full immersion in a pool

▲ Infant baptism

Key Words - Features of a church

| | |
|-----------|--|
| altar | table at the front of a church which is the most holy part of a church |
| baptistry | part of the church that contains the font or vessel for baptisms |
| Crucifix | a model of the cross with a small figure of Jesus on it |
| font | basin in a church that holds water for baptism |
| lectern | reading stand which holds a book, normally a Bible, during readings |
| pews | benches which a congregation sits on |
| pulpit | a raised platform in a church from which the sermon is given |

Command Words

| | |
|----------|---|
| Name | Recall one or more pieces of information |
| State | Write down what the term in the question means |
| Give | Recall one or more pieces of information |
| Describe | Give an account in words of someone or something including all of the relevant characteristics, qualities or events |
| Explain | Make an idea, situation or problem clear by describing it in detail revealing relevant data or facts |
| Weigh up | Develop an argument which demonstrates both sides and comes to a conclusion |

Key Words - General

| | |
|--------------------|---|
| Anglican | any church or church member which is part of the Church of England |
| Bible | the holy book for Christians |
| church | also chapel, cathedral, meeting house - different names for the Christian place of worship |
| Church | a community of Christians |
| congregation | the group of people who attend a place of worship |
| denomination | the different groups within a religion, especially Christianity |
| ecumenical | 'whole inhabited world'; now refers to a movement within Christianity to bring unity and improve relationships and understanding between Christian groups |
| liturgical worship | worship which follows a set format; in the Anglican Church, comes from the Book of Common Prayer (it is called 'Common Worship') |
| Pope | the Bishop of Rome and head of the Roman Catholic Church |
| Protestant | a denomination of Christianity, they were called by that name as they protested against some of the practices of the Catholic Church |
| Quaker | a denomination of Christianity, also known as the 'Society of Friends' |
| Roman Catholic | a denomination of Christianity, led by the Pope |
| Sacrament | an outward sign through which God's grace is given to a person |

Key Words - Baptism

| | |
|---------------------|---|
| adult baptism | baptism of an adult that includes the use of water and the person's own statement of faith |
| anoint | make somebody holy in a ceremony, usually putting oil onto them |
| believer's baptism | baptism of a person old enough to understand the meaning of the ceremony, often including full immersion in water |
| blessing | a form of words and action giving holiness or a gift from God to a person |
| confession of faith | a statement of religious teachings |
| godparents | a person who sponsors someone at a baptism |
| immersion | being covered in a liquid, such as water in believer's baptism |
| infant baptism | ceremony to welcome a child into the Christian religion |
| Trinitarian formula | "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit" used in Baptism |

Key Words - Eucharist

| | |
|--------------------|--|
| consubstantiation | the bread and the wine are symbols of the body and blood of Jesus Christ |
| Eucharist | also called Mass, Holy Communion, Divine Liturgy or Lord's Supper - the sacrament which re-enacts Jesus' Last Supper where he shared bread and wine with his disciples |
| Holy Communion | ritual which re-enacts the Last Supper of Jesus and his disciples |
| transubstantiation | the change in the bread and the wine to become the actual body and blood of Christ |

A diagram showing the different denominations of Christianity

▲ Believers' baptism involves full immersion in a pool

▲ Infant baptism

Key Words - Features of a church

| | |
|-----------|--|
| altar | table at the front of a church which is the most holy part of a church |
| baptistry | part of the church that contains the font or vessel for baptisms |
| Crucifix | a model of the cross with a small figure of Jesus on it |
| font | basin in a church that holds water for baptism |
| lectern | reading stand which holds a book, normally a Bible, during readings |
| pews | benches which a congregation sits on |
| pulpit | a raised platform in a church from which the sermon is given |

Command Words

| | |
|----------|---|
| Name | Recall one or more pieces of information |
| State | Write down what the term in the question means |
| Give | Recall one or more pieces of information |
| Describe | Give an account in words of someone or something including all of the relevant characteristics, qualities or events |
| Explain | Make an idea, situation or problem clear by describing it in detail revealing relevant data or facts |
| Weigh up | Develop an argument which demonstrates both sides and comes to a conclusion |